WHAT IS A “REQUEST FOR ORDER”?

A Request for Order is a request for the court to have a hearing so the Judge can make a court order. If a parent wants the Judge to make a new order about custody and visitation, support or other orders in an existing case, or if they want to change an order that already exists, they would file a Request for Order. The person who files the request is called the “moving party”. The other party is called the “responding party”.

WHY SHOULD I FILE A RESPONSE?

You should complete and file a Responsive Declaration to Request for Order to let the Judge know whether you agree or disagree with the other parent’s request. You also get to tell the Judge what you think the order should be. However, you cannot raise any new issues in your responsive papers. For example, if the moving party only asked for custody and visitation orders, you cannot bring up the issue of child support in your response. Instead, you would need to file your own Request for Order. In addition to filing a response, it is important to go to the court date. If you do not, the Judge may grant the moving party’s request without your input. Please look at the first page of the Request for Order for the court date, time and location.
