

Families For Peace

What is Families for Peace?

- Voluntary program with separate components to work with couples who are experiencing abuse in their relationship. We seek individuals who recognize they have a problem and want to address this.
- 26 Week Program _ Next Door Solutions will work with the survivor and child(ren), and A Turning Point will work with the person who has a problem abusing others
- 8-10 participants per group/Language differences will be accommodated
- There are no fees for this program
- Incentives for completion of Phase I and Phase II

Families for Peace

Phase 1: 14-Week Accountability Group and Support Group

Phase 2: 12-Week Family Healing Support Group

The groups are currently meeting virtually

From Next Door Solutions to Domestic Violence and A Turning Point

To participate in a group or for more information, please contact Aparna Dhoraje at 408-501-7546 or email at adhorage@nextdoor.com

A TURNING POINT

