WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT DEADLINES?

The court has important things you should do to keep your case on track. The first 2 are:

- 1. You should serve your filed Petition and Summons on your spouse/partner within 60 days of filing.
- 2. You should file and serve your "Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure" within 60 days of opening your case. The Preliminary Declaration of Disclosures are mandatory. There are two exceptions to this rule:
 - a. If you have a court order from the Judge that allows you serve by publication or posting.
 - b. If you have filed a Summons/Petition for Nullity only and have not asked for a divorce in the alternative. In these two instances only, you do not have to complete the disclosure process.

For help with the disclosure forms, you can visit the Self Help Center's website at www.scscourt.org, click on "Complete Forms at Home" to obtain the form packet and sample. You may fill it out on your own or attend the Center's virtual online workshop. Visit www.scscourt.org, click on "Free & Low Cost Legal Help" then click "Self Help Workshops" for more information.

There are additional deadlines you can read about in the court's Local Rules and the California Rules of Court. You can find both Rules on our website (www.scscourt.org) or at the Santa Clara County Law Library. If you do not follow the Rules and deadlines your case may be dismissed.

WHAT IS A "CONTESTED" DIVORCE?

If your spouse/partner files a Response your case is considered a "contested" divorce. Don't be alarmed!! Your spouse/partner may file a Response even if you are in agreement about the terms of your divorce. Filing of a Response allows both parties to participate in the process and finish their case by agreement. Couples who are unable to reach agreement will get a final decision from the Judge at a Trial. For information regarding how to get temporary support and\or custody orders, please visit our website at www.scscourt.org. You may also contact us by phone or email (see below).

WHAT DOES "DEFAULT" MEAN?

If your spouse/partner does not file a Response within 30 days of being served you can ask the court to let you finish the case without the participation of the other party. This is called "default". In some cases, couples decide to go this route because they are in agreement. In other cases, the other party ignores the process for various reasons or has lost contact. Please note that there are two steps to getting a default Judgment. First, you file a Request to Enter Default. If your Request to Enter Default is granted, you must submit a proposed Judgment for the Judge to review and sign. This Judgment can be based on a written agreement that you attach or, if no agreement, based on what you requested in your Petition.

HOW LONG DOES IT TAKE TO FINISH THE DIVORCE?

You can be divorced 6 months and a day from the date your spouse was served with the divorce forms provided that a proof of service was filed, or 6 months from the date he/she filed a Response, whichever is earlier. However, you will not automatically be divorced after 6 months. Petitioner and/or Respondent must complete and file the necessary forms and documents to finish the case. For information regarding how to finish your case, complete a Request to Review to Finalize form online at www.scscourt.org search "Divorce Case Review". If you do not have internet access, a hard copy of the review form is available in the main lobby of the Family Justice Center Courthouse.
