The Superior Court of California, County of Santa Clara Launches Multilingual Video on "Information Regarding Domestic Violence Restraining Orders"

SAN JOSÉ, California (August 16, 2023): The Superior Court of California, County of Santa Clara is proud to announce the launch of an educational video designed to provide vital information about Domestic Violence Restraining Orders in English, French, Mandarin, Vietnamese, and Spanish. This multilingual media initiative reflects the Court's commitment to ensuring equal access to justice for all members of our community, regardless of their language or background.

The video, “Information Regarding Domestic Violence Restraining Orders” aims to empower individuals by equipping them with the knowledge and understanding necessary to navigate the restraining order process when it comes to responding to or receiving a domestic violence restraining order. To address the limitations imposed by language barriers and enhance accessibility to legal resources, the Santa Clara County Court has taken into account the populations and demographics that need support with language accessibility on this topic.

“Language should never be a barrier when seeking justice or addressing crucial issues. The Superior Court of California, County of Santa Clara firmly believes that every member of our community deserves an equal opportunity to fully comprehend the legal process and their roles within it,” stated Family Court Supervising Judge, Hon. Brooke Blecher. “By providing comprehensive language options, the Court aims to bridge the gap and empower individuals with the knowledge they need to protect themselves and their loved ones.”

This video covers a range of topics related to domestic violence restraining orders, including the various types of restraining orders available and the processes involved in obtaining them. Clear and concise explanations are provided, ensuring that viewers can grasp the information effectively.

The Superior Court of California, County of Santa Clara invites individuals to review this valuable resource and gain a comprehensive understanding of domestic violence restraining orders. By empowering individuals with knowledge, the Court aims to encourage a safer and more informed community. The video can be accessed by visiting, https://www.scscourt.org/domesticviolence.
