STANDING ORDER

2012 APR 30 A 9:21

EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION UPON JUVENILE COURT JURISDICTION TRANSFERRING FROM JUVENILE JUSTICE TO DEPENDENCY

County of Santa Clara, California Superior Court
By:
E.L. IBARRA
Deputy Clerk

Pursuant to the Dual Status Protocol agreed upon by the Juvenile Probation Department and the Department of Family and Children's Services, judicial supervision of youth under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court may transfer from juvenile justice to dependency. In these instances, JPD may possess information relevant for both DFCS and minor's counsel appointed by the court to provide representation in the dependency matter. In order to facilitate the discovery of this information, the court hereby orders that JPD shall provide DFCS and minor's counsel copies of the following documents, should they exist in the minor's case file:

1. Applications and orders related to the administration of psychotropic medications. These documents include Judicial Council forms JV-220, JV-220(A) and JV-223
2. Findings and Orders related to limitations on a parent's right to make educational decisions. These documents include Judicial Council forms JV-535, JV-536 and JV-537
3. JV-790, Order for Restitution and Abstract of Judgment
4. Individualized Educational Plans of the minor
5. Unsealed psychological evaluations of the minor conducted within 12 months prior to the court's order modifying the juvenile court's jurisdiction

These documents shall be provided by JPD within 10 court days of the order modifying the juvenile court's jurisdiction.

SO ORDERED
