Santa Clara County Superior Court Announces Public Display of Student Artwork

SAN JOSÉ, CA (July 11, 2025): The Superior Court of California, County of Santa Clara is pleased to announce that student artwork submitted through the Court's 2025 Art Contest is now available for public viewing both online and in person.

Created by local elementary school students in grades K–5, the collection reflects the theme "What brings you happiness and joy." These vibrant and thoughtful pieces are featured on the Court's website at <https://santaclara.courts.ca.gov/general-information/court-community/student-artwork> and are on display in the Juror Assembly Room at the South County Morgan Hill Courthouse, located at 301 Diana Avenue, Morgan Hill, CA 95037.

"Please enjoy this artwork submitted by Santa Clara County elementary students to our Court for public display," said Judge Elizabeth C. Peterson. "We are fortunate to showcase this beautiful artwork in our jury assembly rooms, and we hope it brings you joy and happiness."

This initiative, led by Judge Peterson, offers a meaningful opportunity to highlight the creativity of young artists while enhancing the environment for jurors and community members visiting the courthouse.
