The Santa Clara County Superior Court's Annual Report For 2018-2019 Has Been Published

SAN JOSÉ, California (December 23, 2019): The Superior Court of California, County of Santa Clara is pleased to announce the release of its 2018-2019 Annual Report. The Annual Report is an acknowledgement of the work and accomplishments of those who have supported the administration of justice within Santa Clara County over the past two years.

“Increasing access to justice is a very high priority for the Superior Court,” said Presiding Judge Deborah A. Ryan. “An important step to increasing access to justice is helping the people of Santa Clara County better understand our Court, our programs, and how the Court resolves disputes under the law.”

The Annual Report covers key areas of Court operations, including divisions, special programs, budget, technology, and community outreach.

Santa Clara County Superior Court CEO Rebecca J. Fleming noted, “We are very proud of the work of our Court. This Annual Report is a representation of some of the all-encompassing effort that goes into the administration of justice each year.”
