Supreme Court Visits Santa Clara County Superior Court

The California Supreme Court held one of the largest public education events in recent history when it met in San Jose for a special session on Dec. 2 and Dec. 3, 2003. This special oral argument session was held at the Old Courthouse of the Superior Court of Santa Clara County, in downtown San Jose.

Almost 500 high school students from Santa Clara, Monterey, Santa Cruz, and San Benito counties attended the oral argument session. Other students viewed live broadcast from classrooms. A Question and Answer session between justices and students was held before the session began.
