START UPA AND REQUEST FOR ORDER for Ex Parte Custody/Visitation

Rev. 5/15/2024

How to Start a Parentage Case and get Custody, Parenting Time, or Support orders (Emergency) Open a Parentage case if you have a child with a person you are not married to and you want to get court orders.

Step 1	Complete the following forms in blue or black ink:
	 Local form FM-1013 Declaration in Support of Ex Parte Application for Orders FL-305 Temporary Emergency Court Orders
	 FL-300 Request for Order FL-210 Summons (Uniform Parentage-Petition for Custody and Support)
	 FL-200 Petition to Determine Parental Relationship (Uniform Parentage) Local Form FM-1050 Family Law Notice
	FL-105 Declaration Under Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Enforcement Act (UCCJEA)FL-311 Child Custody and Visitation Application Attachment
	☐ MC-025 Attachment to Judicial Council Form☐ FL-150 Income and Expense Declaration, if child support is at issue
Step 2	Since you are asking for emergency/temporary orders, the law requires you to give 1 copy of the forms to the other party by 10:00 am the day before you want the Judge to read them. Then you will complete form FM-1013. In some cases you may not have to give notice, if the Judge gives you special permission. Important: See page 2 for specific instructions about requesting to waive notice.
Step 3	Copies: Make □ 2 □ 3 □ 4 copies, in addition to the original.
Step 4	File: File the original and copies in the Clerk's Office of the courthouse located at: 201 North First Street, San Jose, CA 95113
There is a filing fee,	The Clerk's Office opens at 8:30am Monday-Friday, closing times are subject to change, visit www.scscourt.org or call 408-534-5600 for current office hours.
unless the fee is waived.	Since you are asking for emergency/temporary orders and/or a fee waiver, there is a 24 to 48 hour hold on the papers. During that time, the Judge will determine if you get emergency/temporary orders and/or if the filing fee will be waived. If emergency/temporary orders are granted, these orders will be in effect until the court date.
	Note: The Judge may or may not grant your request for temporary orders and/or fee waiver.
Step 5	Service: After the filed copies are returned to you:
	 Keep for your records—1 filed copy Serve: Have 1 filed copy of the forms you filled out and a blank FL-220 Response to Petition to Determine Parental Relationship, a blank FL-105 UCCJEA, and local form FM-1021 ADR Option, blank FL-320 Responsive Declaration to Request for Order and □ FL-150 personally served on the other parent. "Personal Service" means: someone, NOT YOU, who is at least 18 years old must hand deliver the filed copies to the other parent. You can find a "Process Server" who will do this for a fee.
	 Service must be completed at least (check item 4 on form FL-300 after it is processed): □ 5 calendar days before the court hearing (if emergency orders or order shortening time is granted) □ 16 court days before the court hearing (weekends and holidays do not count) (if emergency orders and order shortening time denied)
	Whoever serves must complete the attached Proof of Service of Summons form (FL-115) and give it back to you. You must file the original and a copy of this form at the Clerk's Office, the clerk will file stamp the copy and give it back to you. Keep this copy for your records.
STEP 6	Go to your court date.

Please turn over for further instruction and important information

WHAT IS A REQUEST FOR ORDER AND WHY WOULD I NEED TO FILE ONE?

A Request for Order is a request for the court to have a hearing so the Judge can make a court order. If you want the Judge to make a new order about custody, visitation, support or other orders in an existing case, or if you want to change an order that already exists, you would file a Request for Order. If you do not already have an open case, you will need to file additional paperwork to open one.

WHAT ARE EMERGENCY/TEMPORARY ORDERS?

The Judge may grant a request to make orders immediately (within 24 to 48 hours) if a situation has occurred, or may occur, where irreparable harm would occur without the emergency orders. For example, your child is in immediate danger of being harmed or abducted.

The law requires that you, the party requesting emergency orders, give 1 copy of the forms to the other party before they are filed so the other party knows about the emergency orders you are requesting (has "notice"). This gives them a chance to respond to the court on an emergency basis to give the Judge their side of the story. You have to give the forms to the other party by 10:00 am the day before you want the Judge to review them. So if the forms are given to the other party at:

- 9:30 am on Wednesday they will be reviewed by the Judge on Thursday.
- 2:00 pm on Wednesday they will be reviewed by the Judge on Friday.

In some cases, the Judge can excuse this notice depending on facts of each case. Such cases include domestic violence restraining order applications. For cases that do not involve a domestic violence restraining order, you must attach a separate declaration explaining why you are requesting the court waive the requirement for giving notice to the other party. You can consult a private attorney for legal advice as to whether notice is required in your situation.

If emergency/temporary orders are made, they are in effect until your court date. The filing clerk will write this date on the front page of the Request for Order. If your request for emergency orders is denied at the temporary stage, you still have another chance to ask for them at your hearing,

WHAT HAPPENS IF I CANNOT GET THE OTHER PARTY SERVED?

The law requires you to have someone other than you, who is over 18, hand deliver a filed copy of the forms to the other party. If you are unable to serve the other party on time, the court will not be able to hear your request or make any court orders at the hearing. The Judge may grant a reissuance (this means a new court date is scheduled). If so, any emergency/temporary orders that were made will usually continue to be in effect until the new court date.

WHY IS ESTABLISHING PARENTAGE IMPORTANT FOR MY CHILD?

A parentage action establishes the parentage of your child, rights to child support and legal claims to inheritance or Social Security benefits. However, you must be sure you get your actual parentage Judgment, not just orders for custody and support. Opening a case also establishes which county's court will make decisions about your child.

WHAT IF THE FATHER SIGNED A VOLUNTARY DECLARATION OF PATERNITY AT THE HOSPITAL?

The Voluntary Declaration of Paternity becomes a parentage judgment 60 days after it is signed and cannot be cancelled after the child turns two years old. If you want custody, visitation or child support orders, you still need to file a parentage action and attach a copy of the Voluntary Declaration of Paternity, if you have it.

WHAT IF THE OTHER PARENT AND I AGREE ABOUT PARENTAGE, CUSTODY, PARENTING TIME AND/OR CHILD SUPPORT ISSUES?

If a case has been opened by you or the other parent and neither of you are being represented by private attorneys in this case, the attorneys at the Self Help Center/Family Law Facilitator's Office can help you prepare a Judgment by agreement. To get an appointment, contact the Self Help Center and tell the Center's staff that you agree. You may also hire a private attorney-mediator to help you.

HOW CAN I GET HELP?

Here are some ways to get help:

- Go to http://www.calbar.ca.gov/Public, then click on "Lawyer Referral services" to hire or consult with a private attorney.
- For free legal advice and information, see our "Do-It-Yourself Resources" flyer. Go to www.scscourt.org, click on "Self-Help" then "Self-Help Flyers".
- The Self Help Center/Family Law Facilitator See our information flyer:
 - Contact us: Go to www.scscourt.org then click "Contact the Self Help Center". Walk-in assistance is limited to emergencies so contact us remotely first.
 - Obtain Forms: Go to www.scscourt.org then click "Complete Forms at Home"
 - o Form Review: Emergency requests may be reviewed in person at the Restraining Order Help Center located at 201 N. First Street, San Jose, CA 95113, visit www.scscourt.org for current office hours.
 - Online Workshop: We recommend you attend our online Parentage and Request for Order (UPA/RFO) Workshop (go to www.scscourt.org, Self Help, then Workshops), for more information about parentage cases and the process involved.
 - o Note: We cannot help people who have attorneys.

INSTRUCTIONS

For more information please refer to Superior Court of California, County of Santa Clara Local Rules 5 A & B and California State Rules, Rules 5.151, 5.165, 5.167, and 5.170.

This form is required in Santa Clara County, if you are asking the Judge to make immediate orders (also known as emergency or ex parte orders) without the other party being present for a hearing. This form must be completed in any case where ex parte orders or emergency orders are requested. If you are required to give notice, notice must be given before 10:00 a.m. on the court day before the Judge reviews the application, or the application will be delayed another 24 hours. Notice means providing the other side of the case, either all other attorneys or any self-represented party, with copies of any papers that you want the Judge to review and any orders that you are requesting. If you have given notice to the other side of your case, you must state the form of notice given. If you ask the Court to not require notice, you must explain why. Sometimes notice is not required, such as cases involving allegations of domestic violence or where the safety of a party or a child might be at risk if notice is given. It is up to the Judge in your case to determine whether notice will be required or not.

SECTION #1

State whether you are the Petitioner or the Respondent in the case. Once a case is filed, the parties keep the same status in the case. You do not change from the Respondent to the Petitioner by filing a new motion in the case. If you do not have an attorney, you are considered self-represented.

SECTION #2

If any other party is represented by an attorney, you must provide the Court with the attorney's name and address. If the other party is not represented by an attorney, you must provide the Court with the other party's address.

SECTION #3

It is very important to list all other cases in which you and the other party have been involved with the courts. This would include other Family Law, Probate, Juvenile, Restraining Order, Child Support, Civil, or Criminal matters. If you do not have the case number, please put "unknown" and list the county and the year of the filing, if possible.

SECTION #5a.

Unless notice is excused by the Court, you must provide notice of this application to all other parties and attorneys before you deliver a copy to the Court. When you give such notice, specify how you did it (by fax, courier, or personally, for example), who received it and at what time and on which date. Also, please explain how you know that the other side received copies of your papers and what response you were given.

SECTION #5c.

If you believe that you should not be required to give notice of this application and are asking the Court not to require notice, explain why in this section. Check as many boxes as apply. You may also write out any further explanation of your reasons for not giving notice or provide a separate declaration.

After this form is completed, attach it to your application or motion and submit them to the Court Specialist's Office at the Family Court Facility where you are dropping off your paperwork for review.

STANDARD RESTRAINING ORDER

(Parentage—Custody and Support)

ORDEN DE RESTRICCIÓN ESTÁNDAR (Paternidad—Custodia y Manutención)

Starting immediately, you and every other party are restrained from removing from the state, or applying for a passport for, the minor child or children for whom this action seeks to establish a parent-child relationship or a custody order without the prior written consent of every other party or an order of the court.

This restraining order takes effect against the petitioner when he or she files the petition and against the respondent when he or she is personally served with the Summons and Petition OR when he or she waives and accepts service.

This restraining order remains in effect until the judgment is entered, the petition is dismissed, or the court makes other orders.

This order is enforceable anywhere in California by any law enforcement officer who has received or seen a copy of it.

En forma inmediata, usted y cada otra parte tienen prohibido llevarse del estado a los hijos menores para quienes esta acción judicial procura establecer una relación entre hijos y padres o una orden de custodia, ni pueden solicitar un pasaporte para los mismos, sin el consentimiento previo por escrito de cada otra parte o sin una orden de la corte.

Esta orden de restricción entrará en vigencia para el demandante una vez presentada la petición, y para el demandado una vez que éste reciba la notificación personal de la Citación y Petición, o una vez que renuncie su derecho a recibir dicha notificación y se dé por notificado.

Esta orden de restricción continuará en vigencia hasta que se emita un fallo final, se despida la petición o la corte dé otras órdenes.

Cualquier agencia del orden público que haya recibido o visto una copia de esta orden puede hacerla acatar en cualquier lugar de California.

NOTICE: If you have a child from this relationship, the court is required to order child support based upon the income of both parents. Support normally continues until the child is 18. You should supply the court with information about your finances. Otherwise, the child support order will be based upon information supplied by the other parent. Any party required to pay child support must pay interest on overdue amounts at the "legal" rate, which is currently 10 percent.

Choices for Solving Legal Problems without a Court Hearing

FAMILY COURT
Superior Court, Santa Clara County

Alternate Dispute Resolution is a CHOICE in Family Law Cases

"Alternative Dispute Resolution" (ADR) is a term used for ways you can solve problems without going to a formal Court hearing with a Judge. Some choices are explained below. ADR can save you time and money. With ADR you are likely to feel better about the legal process and how your case is settled. You can often solve Family Law issues such as child custody, visitation, support, and property division by agreement instead of by going to a Court hearing.

Except for custody and visitation mediation, ADR services are voluntary and can only be a part of your case resolution plan if both parties choose to use these services.

All court-connected ADR providers that are a part of your case resolution plan have been trained to assess and handle cases that may have domestic violence issues. Ask about separate sessions if meeting separately from the other party will make you feel safer.

TYPES OF RESOLUTION PROCESSES:

Custody/Visitation Mediation - Free

California law says that if parents do not agree about custody and visitation issues they must try to settle the issues by going to Mediation. Mediation is a way for parents to meet with someone who does not work for either side to try to agree about their children. Mediation can be done through the Court at Family Court Services at no cost or through a private mediator you hire on your own. Mediation through Family Court Services in Santa Clara County is a confidential process - the mediator will not go to a Court hearing to tell the Judge what you or the other parent said in mediation. The mediator can help you and the other parent talk about and decide issues such as how much time the child will spend with each parent, how to best exchange the child, and other custody or visitation issues.

Orientation and Mediation may be scheduled by calling (408) 534-5760. Parties must attend Orientation prior to Mediation if they have never been to Mediation before. Orientation may be done online at http://www.scscourt.org/court_divisions/family/fcs/fcs_orientation.shtml or in person by calling (408) 534-5760 to schedule Orientation. Orientation is available in English and Spanish.

Settlement Officer Conference (SOC) - Free

The Court has a full-time Settlement Officer, whose job is to help parties settle their family law cases for free. The Settlement Officer Conference (SOC) focuses on resolving property and support issues. The conference works best when parties have given each other information in advance about their finances and how they think things should be settled. An SOC can be set at any time after you have served the Preliminary Declarations of Disclosure by calling (408) 534-5710.

Mediation

Mediation is a way to reach an agreement with the help of a person who is specially trained to help resolve disagreements. The mediator can help the parties talk with each other and explore options for settlement. Mediators are usually attorneys hired by the parties, but they are not the attorney for either side. A mediator can help resolve one issue or the entire case. Mediation is private and confidential. Anything that is said or written in the mediation process is confidential. The mediator may not talk about the case to the Court or anyone else unless the parties both agree. Agreements reached in mediation can become court orders if both parties agree.

Visit the Court's website for a list of Family ADR providers: http://www.scscourt.org/court_divisions/family/adr/family_adr_search.asp

Personal Property Arbitration - Free

A volunteer attorney will decide how to divide your personal property, such as furniture. Both parties must agree to the arbitration or it must be ordered by the Court. The arbitrator writes up a decision after each side presents his or her case. The arbitrations are held at the Family Court and may be scheduled by calling (408) 534-5710.

Collaborative Law

In the collaborative practice process, each party has a private attorney and each makes a commitment to resolve any disagreements without going to court. The parties and their attorneys have a series of private meetings to create solutions based on the needs of the parties. All parties and their attorneys agree that if the parties cannot settle their case and/or if either party chooses to withdraw from the process and go to court, the collaborative attorneys cannot represent these parties in court.

Visit the Court's website for a list of Family ADR and Collaborative Law providers: http://www.scscourt.org/court_divisions/family/adr/family_adr_search.asp

You may also contact the Santa Clara County Bar Association at (408-287-2557 or www.sccba.com) and ask for names of attorneys from the Collaborative Law panel.

Arbitration and Private Judging

An arbitrator, usually an attorney hired by the parties, makes a decision after the hearing information is presented by both parties. The arbitrator prepares a written decision which is sent to both parties and the Court. The parties decide ahead of time whether the arbitration is binding or not. "Binding" means that the arbitrator's decision will be final. "Non-binding" means that the parties do not have to follow the arbitrator's decision.

Private judging, like arbitration, involves choosing a person, usually an attorney, to act as either a settlement or trial judge or both. The decision of the private judge is filed with the Court as a Court order. If you want to consider private judging, both sides must agree on the private judge. Please be sure that you are clear on the experience and qualifications of the provider as well as the costs and services that he or she will provide.

Young Children's Settlement Team-Free

If you have a child aged 5 or under and have custody or visitation disputes, you may request to participate in the Young Children's Settlement Team Project. This brings together a team of volunteer mental health professionals and volunteer attorneys who work with the parties at the courthouse to attempt to resolve any custody or visitation issues. The process is confidential. If agreements are reached, they are reviewed by the parties and counsel, as well as the Court. If there are still issues left, a JCC is held with the All Purpose Judge.

The Court does not think any form of ADR or any ADR provider is better than another and does not guarantee how your case will work out.
